

“The Walker Apartments”

Modern, innovative design in the heart of South Melbourne with the Clarendon Street shopping precinct, South Melbourne Market and some of the best restaurants just a short walk, as well as the Crown entertainment complex, Albert Park Lake, South Wharf and tram access to the CBD makes this the place to be.

Whether you are an investor looking for future capital growth that only a location such as this can offer, first home buyer or someone looking for a city base, you need not look further.

From the secure entry to the spacious open-plan living with a kitchen complimented by stainless appliances, stone benchtops opening to a private balcony for outdoor living, two generous bedrooms both with built-in robes and central bathroom, reverse cycle heating and cooling, security access and carpark – this stylish apartment is the complete package.

Not just a place to live, more a way of life!
