

Spacious, easy living in a contemporary setting

3 1 1 287m2

The first impression on entering this property in a quiet pocket of Cheltenham is of a peaceful, private space shaded by neighbouring trees. A gabled carport which echoes the gable on the north-facing three-bedroomed house, together with a raised deck spacious enough for enjoying a sunny morning coffee, invites you to the front door with its secure smart keypad entry.

On entering the home, the well-designed layout is immediately evident with polished wooden floors leading the visitor into a large lounge overlooking the front garden which merges seamlessly with a generous dining area and adjacent modern kitchen. Freshly painted white throughout and offset with stylish accents of charcoal, large picture windows in the lounge and dining areas let in plenty of natural light, enhanced by a lightwell over the stylish kitchen with its white cupboards and benchtops and stainless-steel cooktop/oven which blend perfectly with the charcoal splashback. A spacious pantry cupboard incorporates an appliance section, so leaving the benchtops free for food preparation.

Additional storage cupboards line the passage off which are 3 generous light-filled freshly carpeted bedrooms, all with built-in robes, with the master overlooking the front garden. A spacious bathroom tiled in neutral contemporary colours with a bath and separate shower cubicle service the living spaces. A separate toilet and tiled laundry complete these facilities and
